

Please amend the claims in accordance with the following:

(Currently Amended) A process for stain removal, removing a stain from a textile comprising the steps of treating a stained area of a substrate the textile with a solution of Chloramine-T, and allowing the solution to stand on the stained area for an effective period of time.

(Currently Amended) A process for removing a stain from an article of clothing which comprises the steps applying to the stained area, an aqueous solution containing from about 0.5 to about 3 weight percent Chloramine-T, from about 0.5 to about 1.0 weight percent of a nonionic wetting agent and an effective amount from about 0.5 to about 5 weight percent of a sodium phosphate salt.